Terms and Conditions “Summer Camp”*

By validating your child’s enrolment at the “Summer Camp”, you agree to the terms and conditions below. A week in a group is a rewarding experience; nevertheless, it requires applying certain rules, so that we can spend a great week together!

Compliance with basic rules: On the first day of the “Summer Camp”, the leader explains the basic rules of organization. Each young student, agrees to respect them.

Age Limit: The defined age must be respected. Nevertheless, a tolerance of 6 months is accepted.

Health: The young student must be fit for the various sport activities available. Parents are obliged to pass on all the necessary information concerning the health and precautions to be handled.

Price: The price includes the supervision, the equipment, the availability of the premises and the activities. No reduction is granted in case of absence without a medical justification.

Reimbursement: A part of the payment for the “Summer Camp”, is reimbursed in case of illness or accident, upon presenting the medical certificates.

1 day Presence = refund of 50%

2 days Presence = refund of 35%

3 days Presence = refund of 20%

4 days Presence = refund of 10%

Cancellation: The organizers reserve the right to cancel if the number of participants is not sufficient. In case of cancellation, you will be informed at least 3 days before the start of the “Summer Camp”.

Insurance: Students should have an insurance policy covering the risks of personal injury and civil liability.

Attire: Each young student must wear a suitable athletic outfit, a pair of spare shoes for the interior is recommended. In the event of bad weather, all outdoor activities will still be maintained as much as possible. The students should have rainproof and outdoor clothing with a spare set of clothes too!

Social Skills and Etiquette: Each student is committed to respect the others and would apply the rules of politeness and etiquette. Any act of physical or verbal violence and kind of mockery, is strictly forbidden. Everyone is committed to respecting each other and to foster mutual aid and solidarity within the group. If one of them does not respect the rules or does not adapt to the group, we reserve the right to exclude the student with a refund of the days that he/she has not participated.

Photos: The activity leaders can take pictures during the class and activities for souvenirs. The PCC and Acadomia, may use these photos for non-commercial purposes. (For future brochures and web sites).

Transportation: The PCC owns 2 buses with drivers.
